FROM THE MAYOR OF WALKERVILLE

“Remember that the happiest people are not those getting more, but those giving more.”

– H. Jackson Brown Jr.

Peter Golding was one of the most – if not, THE most – happy, generous, selfless, and community-orientated people I had the pleasure of knowing.

He lived life with others at the forefront of mind and found great passion in bringing joy to those who surrounded him.

A hole was left in the community with the passing of Peter earlier this year in July.

He was an invaluable member of our Township and he had a way of spreading happiness like no other – whether that was through his commitment to working with his fellow volunteers, his creation of the Miniature Christmas Pageant or the laughs he shared with friends at the Town of Walkerville community events.

It was rare to meet someone who either did not know Peter personally, had not heard of him or did not know of his work through the Miniature Christmas Pageant – a project that was his absolute pride and joy.

For the past two decades, Peter and his dedicated volunteers designed, built and presented an incredible display of mini floats – bringing together thousands of people of all ages into the Township and raising funds for Telethon SA. He selflessly gave his time and energy to bring a smile to the faces of many people in our community, including myself and my own children, at such a wonderful time of the year.

Seeing the pure delight on my young daughters' faces as they slowly walked past dozens of floats, mesmerised by the detail and character instilled in each one, is a vision I will never forget. My girls are now 20 years old – the same age as Peter's pageant turned last year. This event has been a tradition in our calendar every year since I can remember and I know many families in Adelaide have also joined us on this journey.

An afternoon in the shed with a wild idea kicked off the Miniature Christmas Pageant. Peter immediately got to work as somewhat of a distraction after finding out he had been diagnosed with diabetes – and he never looked back. The first pageant was in Peter's home with 20 floats. It then grew to more than 60 floats, which were placed on show through the Walkerville Town Hall during the festive season.

It was so easy to see the love and dedication that went into every single one of the floats – with their own sense of character that resonated with boys and girls, mothers and fathers, children and adults alike.

Peter's passion stemmed from his work at John Martin's, where he befriended a large array of people from all over the State – some of whom joined his Miniature Christmas Pageant crusade and others who stayed in touch via social media.

His dedication to the community only became more prevalent as time went on. He was a regular at Council's annual volunteer events and received several awards for his contribution to the Township.

In 2021, Peter was announced Citizen of the Year at Council's Australia Day event in Mary P Harris Reserve. I'll never forget the genuine surprise on his face as I read his name and his jaw just about dropped to the floor.

He was also awarded the Community Event of the Year for the Miniature Christmas Pageant in both 2013 and 2018.

Council's community events and annual volunteer awards will not be the same without a seat at the table filled by Peter, but we shall fondly remember all that he brought to not only this Township, but the entire State.

A TOUR OF THE HISTORIC AND SCENIC GROUNDS OF MARBLE HILL

Come on a tour of the historic and scenic grounds of Marble Hill.

Built in 1878 by Governor Sir William Jervois, Marble Hill was the Vice-Regal summer residence for 75 years from 1880, until it was destroyed by the Black Sunday bushfires on 2 January 1955. The main structure remained a ruin until the property was purchased in October 2009 by Patricia and Edwin Michell, residents of Medindie. The Michells have started a massive restoration project, which has included the extensive grounds, stables and lastly the main house. Patricia Michell has previously spoken twice at Women of Walkerville events, giving us the history and the challenges of this project. We now have an opportunity to see for ourselves! Please note the main house is still a construction site and there will be no access as part of the tour.

Join us for a guided trip to the hills, a tour of the property and afternoon tea with a glass of rosé in the historic stables. We advise that this tour is for attendees who do not have mobility limitations. All funds raised are for the charities of the Women of Walkerville.

Wednesday 12 October 2022
Bus pick-up from Walkerville Civic and Community Centre at 1pm, tour 2pm – 4pm, return bus drop-off at 5pm.

As we reflect on the importance of community members, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all of our other wonderful volunteers and residents who bring such joy to this Township and give meaning to the phrase "Walkerville".

These people make up the Town of Walkerville society as they walk down the street with a smile, serve behind café counters, work at our businesses, play in the parks, volunteer across the Township and participate in local sporting clubs. They are also those sitting on Council.

My fellow Elected Members are almost at the end of a four-year journey together. The 2018-2022 Council will conclude in November 2022, when the Local Government election process comes to an end and a new member body is introduced. It is from the bottom of my heart that I say THANK YOU to the elected body, Council staff and our community for coming along with me during my first term as Mayor. From a world pandemic and increased cost pressures, to the completion of the Hamilton Reserve Rejuvenation Project and some of the best events this Council has hosted – we have faced many struggles and achievements over the past four years. We experienced the roll-out of the new Planning and Design Code, we buried a time capsule for the more than 100-year-old Gilberton Amateur Swimming Club and we assisted in the restoration of St Andrew's Church bells as they travelled across the world to be repaired.

While we look back at all that we have accomplished, I also encourage you to envision the future and all that we have to look forward to. We endorsed the 2022/23 Annual Business Plan on 1 August 2022, which signifies the reactivation of key strategic sites – including Walkerville Oval, 39 Smith Street and Alfred Street.

I have no doubt that these redevelopments will further connect our wonderful community and allow us to continue to be a prosperous and desirable region for people to live, work and play.

Savings through solar

Council's solar panels are generating almost half of the energy required to run its offices.

In June 2020, the Town of Walkerville installed solar panels on the Civic and Community Centre roof in an attempt to offset some of the building's electricity costs.

The installation of the Solar Panel Management System (SPMS) cost $70,600.

Two full years since the SPMS installation, between 1 July 2020 and 30 June 2022, the SPMS has allowed Council to:

- Reduce our carbon emissions by 95,638kg; and
- Plant the equivalent of 1,856 trees.

In 2021/22, the Town of Walkerville:

- Generated a total of 41.98% of the total Civic and Community Centre energy requirements; and
- Exported a total of 13,841,590kW into the grid.

Prior to solar panels, Council's electricity bill was $45,000 in 2019/20. In 2021/22, the electricity bill had reduced to $24,000.

Walkerville Oval redevelopment

Council undertook a recent community engagement process to seek feedback on a revised design option for the Warwick Street (sports club) building, as part of the Walkerville Oval redevelopment project.

Following feedback from some community members on the lack of outdoor spectator viewing, Elected Members decided to keep the Smith Street (bowling club) design, but revise the Warwick Street building to include a balcony with upper level seating.

Consultation concluded 24 August 2022, after the About Town press deadline. The results are expected to be presented to Council at the September 2022 Ordinary Council Meeting.

Updates will also be available at Council's website by scanning the QR code:

COUNCIL NEWS

39 Smith Street

Council is undertaking a major refurbishment of the 39 Smith Street site as a result of the commitment of $5 million from the Labor Government. The facility will be upgraded to a modern sports and community centre. Now that additional planning has been undertaken and Administration has executed the agreement for the election commitment funding, the Town of Walkerville is undertaking an engagement process regarding the planned works for the site. In addition, Council seeks the community's general feedback about the possible future options for the activation of the old Fuller Street works depot site, which is directly behind the 39 Smith Street site. This could include, but not be restricted to:

- Car parking;
- Community garden;
- Skate park;
- Open space;
- Play equipment; and/or
- Dog park.

Consultation begins at 9am on 29 August 2022 and concludes at 5pm on 23 September 2022.

You can have your say by collecting a hard copy survey from the Civic and Community Centre or scanning the QR code:

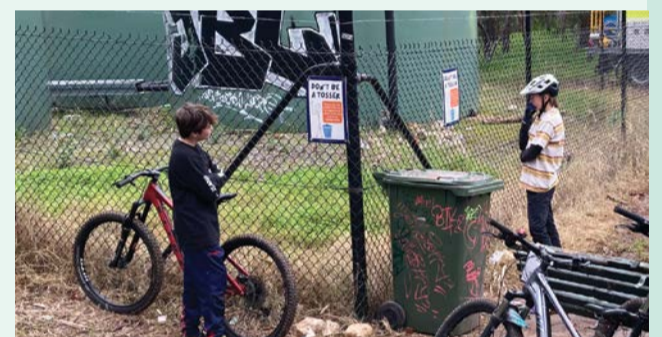

Linear Park courtesy

Council is reminding users of Scales Reserve to look after the surrounding area.

New signage has been installed around the Walkerville reserve, which is located off the River Torrens Linear Park Trail. It acts as a reminder for people to be responsible and respectful to other community members and to look after the local environment. The messaging comes following community concern in relation to antisocial behaviour.

Residents noted littering, speeding cyclists and tree damage to be key issues.

The new communication follows on from Council's successful "Don't be a turd, scoop the poop" signage, which aims to convey the targeted message in both an educative and quirky manner.

Suburban boundary realignment

Council is seeking ratepayer feedback on the potential realignment and renaming of Vale Park.

At a Special Meeting on 1 August 2022, Elected Members resolved to proceed to community consultation to gather feedback on realigning and renaming the portion of Vale Park (south of Ascot Avenue) – as bounded by Lansdowne Terrace, North East Road, Ascot Avenue and the River Torrens – to the suburb of Walkerville.

The area is bounded in red below:

All Town of Walkerville ratepayers have the opportunity to comment as part of consultation, which is open until 5pm on 16 September 2022.

For further information and details on how to have your say, visit Council's website by scanning the QR code:

The decision follows a Motion without Notice by Cr MaryLou Bishop in December 2020 to gauge whether there was community interest in the realignment/renaming to create clearer boundary lines.

"No parking" bin stickers

Do you have a regular issue with vehicles parking in front of your kerbside wheelie bin on collection day? Council has designed "No parking" stickers for local residents to place on their bins to help deter people from parking within one metre of bins on collection day. The stickers are advisory only and cannot be enforced. To obtain a free sticker, visit the Civic and Community Centre during business hours.

From plastic bottles to Council signage

Ever wondered where your recycled plastic bottles go? Council is using 100% recycled bottle materials to manufacture its new street sign covers. These sign covers are fully removable and are a stylish alternative to the previously used hessian bag covers. They are often used to cover parking signs during periods, such as school holidays or events across the Township.

Eco-friendly products

In a move to increase its use of eco-friendly products and methodology, Council has discontinued the use of corflute material.

From 1 July 2022, any new promotional signage around Town is made from a 100% cellulose fibre product, which is fully recyclable.

Grow It Local: Seed Service

Experience your very own seed-to-salad adventure!

As part of a nation-wide mission to get more people growing, sharing and eating locally grown food, the Town of Walkerville, in partnership with Grow It Local, is offering a free "Seed Service" this spring for the community.

The Seed Service is a patch-to-plate adventure that makes free organic seeds and instructional content available to local Walkerville residents.

What does the Seed Service include?

- two packets of heirloom or organic seeds.
- instructional how-to-grow video content accessed by QR-code on back of each seed packet.
- articles on each plant variety.
- access to Ask-An-Expert services, where participants can troubleshoot and get free horticultural advice.
- challenge prizes.

Town of Walkerville residents, businesses, schools and community groups are invited to register for the Grow It Local Seed Service for free by emailing walkerville@walkerville.sa.gov.au with the subject line "Grow It Local Seed Service" to receive free organic green buttercrunch lettuce and organic red lettuce salad bowl seeds. Please include your name, preferred email, phone number and postal address.

Registrations close at 5pm on Wednesday 7 September 2022.

Once the seeds have arrived, residents will be notified by return email and can collect their seeds from the Civic and Community Centre.

Grow it Local is a free online food growing community where you can learn to grow, connect and share with other backyard, balcony, community garden and window-sill gardeners.

Funds to be distributed over four financial years.

Additional street sweeping throughout the Township: $25,000

Extra street sweeping to deal with the increased demand during spring.

Works about Town

Auditing our road and footpath network

The community may notice quad-like bikes roaming the local streets as a Township-wide road and footpath audit takes place.

Council has contracted the Infrastructure Management Group (IMG) to gain a snapshot of the condition of the Town of Walkerville's 37km of road, 74km of kerb and 76km of footpath assets.

IMG ride along the footpaths on high-tech All Terrain Vehicles (ATVs) at a brisk walking pace with hazard lighting and warning devices. They are fitted with high-definition cameras on the front and back to record imagery of the footpath.

IMG certified pavement field technicians conduct a visual inspection every 20m and provide scores between 1-5: 1 being in new or excellent condition and 5 being in poor condition, which has a defect that relates to a hazard.

All Terrain Vehicles (ATVs) are being used to assess Council's footpaths.

The process will allow Council to plan for the Township's future road and footpath renewal programs.

In addition, it assists in ensuring all local footpaths are in good condition for public use and helps identify any issues that may occur in the future, thus improving safety and mobility for the community.

Manual surveys would take Council staff months to complete, but new technology is helping Council by dramatically cutting the time and effort required to undertake the process. These surveys will be completed within a week.

The IMG road survey vehicles are fitted with high-definition cameras and three-dimensional lasers that collect data and imagery for Council roads, kerbs, signs and local traffic management devices. The vehicles travel through the area at normal traffic speeds, recording defects within the pavement like cracking, potholes, surface defects, roughness and rutting. These attributes are used to determine which roads need repairing or resealing and assist with preparing road maintenance and works programs.

Vehicles equipped with cameras and 3D lasers are used to assess the condition of Council's roads.

Council understands the community's concern for privacy and can assure residents that all filming will be focused on the roads and footpaths only. No footage will be taken of commercial, residential, or private structures.

During Town of Walkerville engagement processes throughout the past 12 months, community feedback made it clear that there was a desire for an increased investment in roads and footpaths. Council-wide traffic safety and the enhancement of the road and footpath network has therefore been a key driver in developing the 2022/23 budget. Council has allocated almost $600,000 towards improving the quality of local roads, providing greater streetscape amenity, undertaking a footpath audit and investigating issues regarding traffic and parking.

Crawford Reserve

From a classic telephone box-themed community book library to a replica of cast iron gates that date back to an 1880s Walkerville estate – the Crawford Reserve upgrade unlocks pieces of history, while creating a useful space for the community to gather.

The mini redevelopment of the Walkerville Terrace reserve is expected to be completed this week, with the installation of the telephone box book library and plantings to follow. The community is encouraged to take a book and leave a book at the telephone box, which was revitalised and brought back to life by Council's outdoor team. In addition, there is a nearby undercover reading area, a barbecue and shelter space across the park and disability-friendly paths for ease of access.

Nestled in between Hay Lane and Horn Court, Crawford Reserve is home to the Henry Simpson Oak. The 15ft-high tree was planted on the 80th birthday of Sir Henry Simpson Newland at his Burlington Street residence on 18 November 1954. In 1970, Lady Newland's niece Mrs Wreford advised Council that the property was going on the market in two weeks and suggested they transplant the tree to a public place. Council sought advice on the best method of moving the Oak to ensure the survival of the tree. Crawford Reserve was selected and the tree was successfully rehomed.

As part of the upgrade, uplighting has been installed to highlight the tree, along with the planting of an additional four Oak trees to act as companions to the original Oak, which still stands in remembrance of Sir Newland – a remarkable surgeon with a long list of accolades, including honorary service to the Royal Adelaide Hospital, transforming faces of men that were battered during WWI and founding the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons.

In addition, the rear of the park has been planted to resemble a "faux" formal garden entrance to the Holmwood estate. The property, which now can be found on Devonshire Street, once occupied the entire area where Crawford Reserve sits today. The design includes a replica cast iron gate with stone pillars on either side. It creates an interesting and ornamental backdrop to the reserve and a pleasant space to pass the time, particularly for those residents from Allity Aged Care opposite the park.

The reserve will continue to be watered by ERA Water and the grass labyrinth remains in the centre of the park.

Circle dancing

Circle dancing is back due to popular demand! This style of dance is a wonderful way to exercise the body, mind and spirit. The steps are relatively easy to learn – such as walking, swaying, rocking, stamping, step touch, slip-step, and grapevines. You will dance to a variety of uplifting tempos from around the world, including lullabies, jigs, Brazilian beats, traditional folk, medieval, classical, rock-n-roll, country, gospel and jazz. Participants need to be able to stand unaided, fit enough for gentle to medium paced exercise and follow instructions easily.

Author Talk – Megan Hills

Even though Megan Hills is flying to us from Newcastle, she is a Walkervillian. That is, she grew up in Walkerville and worked at the Walkerville Library during high school at Wilderness and while studying Arts at Adelaide University.

Pavlova Rising is Megan's first novel. A fun art mystery about brilliant Sydney-based fine art student, Anna Lissam, who is on track for a prestigious studentship at London's National Portrait Gallery. But Anna's dream is torn to shreds by her new thesis supervisor, Englishman Dr Perry. Perry, an expert on art theft, is fixated on four suspected fake Aboriginal paintings. Anna is dragged out of her comfort zone to one completely foreign: her own country.

Pavlova Rising took over two decades to write. Why? Come to the author talk to discover the answer. Drink and light refreshment included on arrival.

6pm – 7pm Wednesday
2 November 2022

Walkerville Town Hall
Adults $10
